50 cosas que hay que saber sobre Política (Spanish Edition) Ben Dupre

Desde el principio, antes incluso de que el termino hubiera nacido en Grecia, el hombre ha sido un animal politico. Hasta el punto de que uno de los rasgos definitorios de lo humano es, precisamente, su condicion de politico, su necesidad de organizar la vida en sociedad. Y lo que se juega en la politica no es solo, pese a lo que pudiera parecer en los tiempos que corren, un reparto de cargos o prebendas, o ni siquiera el poder, sino la regulacion de las reglas de convivencia, la vida en comun de todos. En 50 capitulos concisos y enriquecidos con citas y ejemplos contemporaneos, el historiador britanico Ben Dupre desgrana con amenidad los fundamentos teoricos y practicos de la politica, desde las ideas libertad, justicia a las formas de gobierno monarquia, democracia, tirania o las ideologias socialismo, liberalismo, anarquismo. Y, como nada humano le es ajeno a la politica, aborda tambien las cuestiones mas candentes: la corrupcion, el fundamentalismo, la violencia, la globalizacion, la correccion politica o la influencia de los medios de comunicacion. Actualizado y didactico, este libro ofrece algo mas que una introduccion a la politica: es una guia para no perderse en el laberinto de la realidad inmediata.
