The Prince and the Thief Daniel W. Koch

Gage Blackwood is the prince of a broken kingdom. After waging two wars against powerful sorcerers, his people have hidden behind a wall in the last city in Aboridge.

Though the sorcerers were banished to the wastelands and have all but died off, tensions still run high. They seek revenge, and while they're far outnumbered, their power is unmatched.

With his father soon stepping down as king and his menacing sister next in line to the throne, Gage must do everything in his power to keep a third war from breaking out. Will his efforts be enough to finally bring unity and peace to the war-torn land?
