Treason on the Trail (The Trail Western Series Book 1) W.M. Montague

Treason on the Trail is the latest traditional Western adventure from W.M. Montague.

Spending a night on the trail, a young boy is killed, and his best friend is accused of his murder. When his principled, wealthy, landowning father, Dave Rose, rides into town with a posse to free his son, a battle takes place between a father desperate to save his son's life, and a corrupt sheriff who wants revenge against a man he has jealously fought against all his life. As the two men face each other down, something lies out on the trail that could change the settlement of Blackwood forever. Will the dusty town of Blackwood survive—or will the battling personalities of a hate-filled sheriff and a wronged father destroy everything the settlers have fought, and died, to build?

Filled to the brim with action-packed drama, saddle-up and follow the adventures of Dave Rose as he fights to free his town, and his son, from the grip of corruption, and from the danger of an old enemy of the United States.
