Compassion for All Creatures Janice Gray Kolb

"Compassion for All Creatures" reveals non-verbal communication techniques which Janice Kolb learned from her cat, Rochester. Also contained in this book are tender, personal stories of humans and their relationships with animals, which show how we can all benefit and learn from our furry, feathered, and scaled companions. The book is sprinkled with heartfelt poetry, and could be considered one woman's call to halt the cruelties that animals suffer at human hands.
