INSOMNIA My Wake-up Call Bev Diemler

Bev Diemler was home in Stillwater, MN with her young daughter when something so in-credible happened that, within a twinkling of an eye, it transfigured her from Atheist to Believer. Bev's husband returned from work to a find someone who looked like his wife, but she would never again be the same woman he had married. This is her account of the events leading up to that day and the ensuing journey that brought her to the last place on earth she thought she would ever be; on her knees in front of the Altar of the Catholic Church.
