He's a man of God and the Bible says 'do not kill,' but when a gang targets his family this preacher will do anything to protect them. Anything.

Reverend John Archer has spent his life serving the disadvantaged in his violent, gang-infested Chicago neighborhood. But when he witnesses the gang execution of an upstanding fourteen-year-old boy, he realizes he can no longer turn the other cheek. He gives a statement to the police identifying the brutal gang leader who did the shooting.

Now he and his family are targets. Archer scrambles to protect his family but never gets the chance. A gangbanger abducts him and takes him on a wild journey. Archer's life is in imminent peril but worse yet his family's still at risk.
