Reviews for The Tales of the Continuing Time

“If Moran can keep it up, he will gift us with one of the greatest series in memory. Don’t miss.” – Analog

“Moran has a deft touch ... A fine, fast ride.” – Locus

“Exciting ... full of intrigue ... an original and well-thought out background. For once, here is a novel that you want more, not less, of.” – Asimov’s

Product Description

AI War: The Big Boost is the long awaited, fourth installment of the science fiction epic Tales of the Continuing Time.

The Unity was seven kilometers long. It was not merely the largest spacecraft that had ever been built, it was nearly the largest artifact humans had ever built. In 2080, sixty years after the end of the Unification War, Peaceforcer Elite Commander Mohammed Vance intends to see that the Unification of Earth become the Unification of Sol. Only Trent the Uncatchable stands in his way.

Although Daniel Keys Moran’s 5-star rated paperbacks have long been out of print, hardbound limited editions are listed as high as $400. All four books in the series, Emerald Eyes, The Long Run, The Last Dancer, and The AI War are now available as e-books. Emerald Eyes includes novella, “The Star,” not available with the original paperback
