From Book 1: Seventeen year old Ka'Reece is holding down The Family Empire along with his best friend Ezra, while his brother Kaydence and their parents are locked away. Soldiers start to test Ka'Reece authenticity to the crown, when he takes over at just sixteen years old. Not only do he have to worry about making sure no one takes the crown from him and his family, he also has to take care of everyone of his family while secrets from his parents' past are catching up to him. Can he hang on to The Family Empire while being hit from left and right with new secrets and betrayal?

Destiny nor her crew KaLiya, Candace, and Maleah let the circumstances surrounding them prevent them from chasing their dreams.

Destiny has a bright future ahead of her despite her disastrous childhood, and she would do anything to make her dreams happen. Even if that means hiding a secret from Ka'Reece, the one person who is there for her no matter.

When secrets are revealed from both Destiny and Ka'Reece can they still stand by each other like the other needs? Can Destiny hold Ka'Reece down like he do for her when shit starts getting real in the streets of the Bay?

Destiny, KaLiya, Candace, and Maleah are all hiding a big secret from the family. When everything is said and done, will they all still be standing by each other when the smoke clears?
