This workbook is packed with fun art and logic games that teach students to master the top 150 misspelled words. This is essential for anyone who does not want to be embarrassed by common poor spelling habits. This technique is perfect for students with Dyslexia, ADHD, Autism, and other disorders, but works well for anyone who has trouble memorizing long lists of words. The most creative people tend to be great story tellers and wonderful communicators who have a lot of trouble remembering how to spell. This is a spelling journal for students who are ready to overcome typical problems, without having to memorize. The book is for all ages, but may seem childish because the student needs to color in the words. Don't be fooled, even teens like to color! This is a very important exercises that helps the student to be able to visualize each word correctly. This is fun and interesting so give it a try!
