Carrie Parker is set to become the latest member of the Sensible Shoe Club, but seems to have been kidnapped and murdered instead. Annie, Julia, Lynn and Natalie set out to trap the culprit, the suave, handsome gigolo, Mark Rogers. Amid a torrent of misconceptions, half truths and itinerent monkey munching, the Club sort of triumph. Except for a few minor blips, like destroying a restaurant, getting mixed up with Rumanian criminals, contemplating incest, lust, greed, avarice, adultery and several more than the usual quota of seven deadly sins, things go fairly well. Annie falls down a set of cellar steps and meets a man who likes stuffing to the strangest degree, and then there is Inga. Yes, Inga, who should have a book all to herself. And did I mention baby sitters and German eccentricities? No? Well, it's all in this, volume two of The Sensible Shoe Club Archives. Kick off your dancing shoes, girl. Pour out one third vodka, one third orange juice and one third crushed ice. Add an olive and a swizzel stick. Then lay down your weary bones, and start turning pages. If the drink don't chill you out, the book will!
