In Episode 3: Tom finds a job and his proper place, Jacqueline and Ginger make new friends, Kate goes Ginger Beer, and V gets frustrated.

What started as kinky fun just became deadly serious.

Tom is an average guy with a dark secret and a mysterious benefactor. Struggling with the loss of the one woman he ever trusted enough to love, Tom learns that everything he's been given was a loan and there is no repayment plan; this will cost his soul. Penniless and alone, he has no choice but to become the indentured servant of two of the sexiest, and most twisted, women in Boston. But no one counted on the feelings that develop when the young man gives himself completely to the role.

Are the bonds between them enough to overcome betrayals both real and imagined? Are some secrets best kept?

At times rough and raw, this is a story of love and trust, deception and revenge, and its own definition of family, told with a good share of tongue in cheek humor.

This book is intended for mature audiences.
