The Yak is in crisis. He's terrified that a monster will catch him. He flees into a dark and foreboding place, high up into the Himalaya Mountains, trying to escape the monster of his imagination, the great white Yeti. The Yeti, the Abominable Snowman, is a creature who knows the mountains in and out. He appears out of nowhere. Meanwhile the Yak grows weaker, more terrified, more despondent. He's obsessed with this monster and it's all he can see upon the cliffs. Now. Though this tale is full of fear and excitement, it is far from one sided. For it is also rich with a feeling of Zen. The Yak's very psychological obsession is portrayed, as he tries to figure out his monster. And his monster, the mysterious Yeti, is on a quest of his own. Join the Yak on his journey. It may be like the journey you're taking yourself.
