Set on the streets of Edinburgh this gritty story is about a highly improbable relationship between two people who occupied worlds that seemed poles apart. What was it about Carol that intrigued Ian? To the world she was inaccessible and a toxic influence on all who encountered her. She was socially dysfunctional, leaving little that was redeemable. That was until she allowed Ian access to her life. As a hard-bitten homeless-worker, he had seen and done it all and had his fair share of difficult cases to deal with that were par for the course. However, there was something about Carol that he had not seen or dealt with before and which threw him off course. His pursuit of the answer to that something was to have unexpected consequences for them both.
