What They Call Sin Philippa Grey-Gerou

Lindy James seems to have the perfect life. Position, security, comfort. It isn't until a stranger comes into her life that she realizes just how lonely she is. Rogue Fitzwilliam has come to New York with a grudge and a plan. But he slowly finds that things aren't as he expected, too late to prevent being caught in a net of his own making. They cross paths in a small cafe for the first time with electrifying results, launching them on an affair that will leave them both forever changed. But when disaster strikes, can they ever find a way to begin again?
