Civil war survivor, Elisabeth Barrett (Bessie) leaves the war torn South, her home and deceased family in Atlanta, Georgia for a new life in "the North" While working in a Chicago boarding house, she finds an intriguing newspaper ad stating, "Urgently needed, a nanny for three small children with the possibility of matrimony" in Hasty Creek, Nebraska. When at last Bessie arrives at the farmstead, she is greeted by three desperate, filthy, hungry children. Now Bessie is faced with the uncertainty of her own survival as well as keeping these precious young'uns alive with no means of support other than her belief in the providence of a higher power. Unaware of the inherent dangers, can she face her fears and start a new life on the barren Nebraska prairie? Disaster seems to await her at every turn. With the arrival of a handsome, dark-haired stranger, she faces a new challenge to her faith and well-being. Where does he fit in their fragile lives? Will he bring stability or more turmoil? A story of survival and love, Bessie's Dilemma shows the power of God's love as He answers prayers.
