Provident Love: A bouquet of Love and Romance Svjetlana Petrovic

Sometimes in life we must struggle to survive losing the person we love the most. This is not death, but it seems like death. A funeral of the broken heart. So many great and powerful songs and quotes have been written by broken heart artists. That is something that we all can relate to. In these moments all we need is to read, hear or see something that will give us compassion. Every person has his own way of recovering, but in general we all know how it hurts, and it hurts the same for everyone. We experience: Shock: "What the hell just happened?" He will change his mind for sure. I'll just wait next to my phone and wait for him to call me. I will give him some space. Maybe he is just having a bad time and needs to clear his mind. You go through the phases of: Denial Isolation Anger Bargaining Depression Acceptance Finally you realize the reasons why the ex-boyfriend should remain an ex: If it was good, you would still be together. Everything happens for a reason. This is not just an empty phrase. The one, who really is meant for you, will never leave you or break your heart. You will never find the right person if you are stuck with the wrong one. Don't be in a relationship where there is no trust, or problems that can't be solved on mutual happiness. There is for sure a person that would treat you better and respect you, and love you just the way you are. If you don't move on from the bad relationship, you will be blind to recognize the better one that could make you feel worthy. He will continue to hurt you. When someone makes you cry, even once, in the way that you feel hurt, than this person doesn't deserve to be in your life. The person who truly loves you and appreciates you will never make you cry. If you constantly listen to the apology for the same thing, you have to know that it will never stop. You'll still be disappointed, because every false promise will follow to another phony apology. Take the slogan: Do something once - it's a coincidence. Do something twice - that's the intention. Definition of Insanity: doing the same thing over and over again and expecting different results. (Albert Einstein) RESPECT will never be returned. We all wish to go back on the start when we first met, but this is not possible. The "honeymoon phase" is the most beautiful part of the relationship. Once you have broken up, there is no way to go back to the beginning and have the feeling that you had then, even if you get back together with that person. There is someone better waiting for you. Were you really happy in your past relationship? Did you really love him that much that you pushed yourself to do things that made you feel less you? Was he really the one for you? If you have to change who you are just make him/her happy, open your eyes and realize that this won't make YOU happy. One day you will find someone who will love you just the way you are and everything will be just so simple. Simple love is the one where you both are happy to just have each other. There will be trust which is the key for a long lasting relationship. You will love again and you will be loved again.
