China - America Relations: Review and Analysis (Volume 1) (China International Relations)

This book is unique in providing a Chinese perspective on relations between China and the United States. Offering insights and analysis on China's approach to America and its relationship with the US government, this insightful book reveals China's current thinking and strategies towards China-US relations and trade policies. It also provides comprehensive analyses of the competitive strengths of the US and the status of American power in the global community. The book begins by analyzing the US under President Obama's first administration. It also evaluates the US as seen through the eyes of scholars and analysts in China. Strategically, the book looks at the superpower status of America and evaluates the country's strengths and weaknesses. The impact of the global economic crisis on the US is also examined. Sino-American relations are looked at, in particular trade relations. As well, areas of disagreement are discussed. (Series: China International Relations)
