Mayor Ralph Becker states "I want our city's children to know the pleasure of powder skiing in the backcountry or at one of our top-notch resorts; of drinking water as pure as the mountains from which it came; to easily navigate between urban centers and neighborhoods without having to get in their car; and to take a decompressing walk into the foothills at the end of the work day. My awe for the Wasatch Mountains and Salt Lake City's abundant natural beauty is matched only by my respect and appreciation for the deep sense of community cooperation and greater good inherent throughout our great city. The photography in the book is by Adam Barker and Text by Melissa Fields, and is a publication of the Office of Salt Lake City Mayor Ralph Becker.
