Taken: The Channie Series: Book Two Charlotte Abel

In this second installment of The Channie Series, Josh and Channie learn that there is more to a relationship than just love. They are tested physically and emotionally as the tough choices they are forced to make affect not only their future together but their very existence. With a war brewing, Josh is expected to fight and claim his rightful place as a leader of the clans, as foretold in The Book of the Dead. Channie doesn't want him to risk his life fighting a war he doesn't believe in. But the fate of all mages will be determined during the final battle. Will they take the path that was fated for them or will they run? The risks are high but the rewards are even higher.
