The Rainbow Hand: Poems About Mothers And Children Janet S. Wong

The poems in this collection are about mothers and their children, both from the child's perspective and the mother's. Ranging in subject from a child walking in her mother's comforting, protective shadow to a ten-year-old girl wondering if her mother was a freak when she was ten years old to a mother holding her infant son, these poems touch on all aspects of the mother/child relationship.

Here is "Mother's Heart":

My mother's heart
is a bottle
I want to fill

with warm milk
to soothe her hurts

with honey
to trap her bitterness

with a squirt
of Tabasco --

Shake her up!

Inspired by her memories of her mother and her own role as a mother of a young son, these poems, skillfully illustrated in full color by Jennifer Hewitson, create an honest portrait of timeless human connections. Sometimes funny, sometimes sarcastic, always sensitive, the poems will find a ready audience among young people.
